

Name: Aiden

A Great Story

Characters:	Aiden Crew Isaac and Aksel
Setting:	Walmart
Your rule:	human rights

Aiden, Crew, Isaac, and Aksol were buying food from Walmart.

We were eating for an hour and then we finished eating. And we did not have to fight for food. We did not have to steal from others. We could share food. We had access to good food, like Wingers. That's a human right!

Isaac said, "Let's go eat some Wingers!"

Crew said, "I'm thirsty. Let's go buy some drinks from Wingers."

We ordered the same thing and got full after. Then, we went to get ice cream, Baskin Robin's.

Aiden said, "I want cookies and cream" and then went home to eat it.

Because I have freedom and human rights, no one can tell me what to do.

But in a world without rules, someone, like a King, could take over and rule over us. We would be poor. We would have to fight for food. And we would be sad.

The King said, "GIVE ME SOME FOOD."

Aiden said, "Okay master." Then Issac, Aksol, and me gave food to the King. He ate it all, and then he got full.

That's it! Glad we have human rights!
