DON'T POLLUTE

An experience I had when I was 9

Imagine a world that is filled with trash everywhere well I experienced it!

When I was 9, I was going to Duchesne a desert in Utah. It was dusty, rocky, and there were short cactuses barely sticking out of the ground.

When I got near the campsite there was trash everywhere. Cans were scattered across the ground, bags caught in bushes. It was terrible. It was next to a landfill. Imagine living in a world where there were no rules about polluting the earth. I imagined it would look a lot like this! I would not want to live there.

When we got to the campsite my friend dropped a cup on the ground. He was about to walk away from the cup.

"Hey, dude pickup that cup! There is enough trash here already." I said.

"Whoops." He said while picking it up. He threw it in the trash can.
