

Kids should be allowed to buy junk food. It lets kids keep control and how to think not what to think

We should teach kids to make healthy choices. If the laws ban junk food, kids would have behavior issues and it won't encourage them to eat healthier! Because Dimerman said "if children were banned from something they would want it more".

Kids should be able to buy junk food because health experts say it is not bad to eat 1 sweet tooth each week. It is the parents that are buying most of the junk food that kids eat. These are my reasons that the law should not ban kids buying junk food.
